Through the liberality of the commission, who have realized the importance of this department in making the annual exhibitions of interest and benefit to the public, prize lists have been still further increased with a resultant increase of exhibits, until the sheep department at Syracuse is recognized as being equal to any in this country, both as to quality and numbers shown. Breeders of different states meet here and vie with each other in the show ring; while an interested, intelligent public study breeds and types in an endeavor to learn which breed or type may best meet their farm and market conditions. The number of entries and the amount of awards for the past two years are shown in the following table: Total Total Year entries awards 1915 875 $5,630 50 1916 792 4,850 00 AN EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTION It is a great educational institution where practical object lessons are constantly before the public eye. And not alone the visitor receives an education, but the exhibitor--if he be alert--has a rare opportunity to weigh public opinion as to the merit--or lack of merit--to be found in his flock. As an exhibitor I suppose I sometimes became overconfident and thought I knew all about the science of breeding, fitting, and showing sheep; but I recall instances where plain farmers amongst the visitors convinced me that I was on thin ice. And here is an exceptionally good opportunity to look at things through other...
