Home Grown Books, United States, 2013. Book. Book Condition: New. 159 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. This pack of books includes 8 books about the city and the country. Written by an early childhood reading specialist, these books help children learn to read while engaging their imaginations with colorful, expressive illustrations. The themes in this pack are great for observant children who love to create. The easy open and close Velcro box includes 8 books: Finger Painting This book follows a creative kid who gets very messy playing with finger paints. How to Make a Fort With a few blankets, a couple of chairs, and a little imagination, any space can become a magical play space! This book goes through the steps of gathering blankets, arranging chairs, and moving into a newly constructed fort. Make Me a Pirate This book follows an imaginative kid as they dress up as a pirate with things they find around the house. My Walk Explore a new neighborhood with the little girl in this book as she visits her favorite places. Night Light Explore what things glow in the night, from fireflies and stars to flashlights and fires. Please Don t Touch This book explores the things that aren t okay for children to touch, such as ceramic teacups in an antique store. This can be frustrating, but the book ends with a loving hug from a huge teddy bear! Sledding This book follows two friends as they sled through a snowy winter wonderland. Strawberry Pie Learn about the steps of baking a strawberry pie from beginning to delicious end in this book.
