Has he got a partner Is this mentioning 250 a proposal If so the condition he mentions on my side might easily be fulfilled. . . . But the proposal, if it is one, is really too little. It ought to be more, but certainly not less than 500. There ought to be given immediately, the half; the other half on the 10th of next month. And I would add a proposal that should nothing take place within the year, interest of the 10 per cent. yearly will be Fifi in quarterly instalments up to the moment of the movement. oz a. Mlle Colets MS. is in the hands of Mrs. F. , and I shall write to her to send it to Blind. Sarina, dear, is in London for a short while on family business. I thought you knew of it because she said she had something of yours which she would send you. She is, of course, extremely busy with the object of her visit there. Remember me very kindly to Cowen and his wife. I dont know whether or not this will find you in Glasgow, but I suppose it will end by reaching. I am tolerably well although over-tired by work. .
