Little, Brown Book Group, United Kingdom, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 196 x 130 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Mozart in the womb, Baby Einstein DVD s for newborns and i-pad learning apps for toddlers. From the moment the umbilical cord is cut, today s parents feel trapped in a never-ending race to ensure their child is the brightest and the best. But while it s completely natural for us to want our kids to reach their potential, at what point does too much competition become damaging? With constant testing in schools also raising the stakes, how can we tell when hot-housing children is actually doing more harm than good? In this ground-breaking and provocative book, award-winning journalist and parenting author Tanith Carey presents the latest research on what this contest is doing to the next generation. She explains why, far from making our children more go-getting and successful, it can back-fire with life-long repercussions, damage their emotional well-being and fracture their relationships with the very people who love them most: their parents. In this essential manual for today s modern parent, Tanith offers parents practical, realistic solutions that will give them permission to take their foot off the gas and reclaim a more relaxed family life. Packed with insights, experts tips, real experiences and resources, this book is a timely guide to safeguarding your child s well-being in a competitive world - so they can grow into the happy, emotionally balanced people they really need to be. I ve hardly been able to put the book down .as I turned each page I d find something else that resonated with me.Tanith has the ability to challenge your thinking without it being judgmental or preachy. She shares lots of real life case studies and draws on her own...
