2013 Cleveland Indians Baseball Insider: The Top 100 Prospects More

By Tony Lastoria

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A new manager. A new philosophy. A host of new players. And most all, renewed hope. That is what the Cleveland Indians did in the offseason to restore faith and spirit in the team located at the Corner of Carnegie and Ontario. But along with all of the changes the organization has made at the top, the minor league system still remains at the heart of what will truly dictate their chances for success over the long haul. With a parent club that is stocked with well proven Major Leaguers, the Indians now have the convenience of letting some of their high upside stars of tomorrow develop at their own pace. They are still not very strong in the upper levels, but the lower levels are stocked with youth and upside that arguably has not been seen in 20 or more years. This book is the essential resource guide for everything Cleveland Indians beyond the Major League team. In this book you will find: - Detailed and updated scouting reports and tool grades for the...
