The background is a white wall, covered with busts, scraps of modelling, and bas-reliefs, which, with their different shades of marble and plaster, fill up the whole scale of pure, bluish, and yellowish white tone. Against this high light is relieved the dark figure of the sculptor, who has climbed on a box to chisel more at ease at his mythological bas-relief. At the artist's feet a female model, in all the splendor of her glowing flesh tones and fine figure, is taking a moment's rest. The elements are simple--a nude female RouGF. RON (J.-J.).--Taking the Veil at a Carmeliter Convent. figure, and a man in sombre dress, against a white background--but they tell the whole story. You see at once how sharply the lines must stand out, and how strongly the work enchains the attention of every passing visitor. While...
