Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Biennial Report of the Bureau of Child and Animal Protection, 1910 Gratifying in the extreme, to the officers of the State Bureau of Child and Animal Protection, is the record of the work performed during the last two years, as disclosed by the figures transmitted herewith. The volume of business transacted reaches an astounding total, and stands in eloquent evidence of the fact that this Department of the State Government is experiencing a wonderfully rapid growth in importance and usefulness. The work of the Bureau has been performed often under the most discouraging circumstances and conditions; the funds available for the expenses of the Department have been ridiculously meager; in instances our work has been hampered and even nullified by crass ignorance, stupidity or malevolence encountered in high public office. A large number of good citizens remain utterly indifferent or deplorably ignorant of the aims and achievements of this bureau. Often wilful misrepresentation of the actions of the officers of the Department, is resorted to in order to discredit the work or destroy the officer s influence and efficiency; frequently we are compelled to measure official swords with men of low impulses and shady purposes, who have crept, for the time being, into important public office. But for all our tribulations we have found a just mede of compensation. The great work of caring for the unfortunate and oppressed of the state has gone steadily forward; the power, and popularity and influence of the department have experienced a marvellous expansion; our work has elicited the hearty commendation of the Governor, and has brought forth innumerable kindly and generous expressions of approval from many of the...
