Too bad her own life is a litany of unfilled fantasies. Prime example the boss she pines for barely knows she exists. Now that she's won a trip to a Mexican beach resort, though, she vows to shake things up. Instead she winds up alone, empty handed and with a sore toe from the beautiful bottle she's tripped over. A bottle that's purple, gold and stuffed with over six feet of blue-eyed, black-haired hunk. If anyone could teach her how to seduce her boss, it's this sexy genie. Jerod can't believe his bad luck. Three thousand years of granting frivolous wishes, and now he's stuck playing matchmaker. A series of sensual lessons later, he finds there's something different about this shy Viola. Something that tempts him to try to break free of his curse and make a life for himself with her. All he has to do is convince Viola that the man of her dreams is a dud. And the right man for the job of loving her is a genie. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
