Not illustrated. 1911 Excerpt: . . . 1st, this Committee made the following report: As authorized at the last meeting of the Board, arrangements have been made to move the offices of the Society from the Real Estate Trust Building to the Hale Building, 1326-28 Chestnut Street, where two large rooms have been leased at 700 a year; the lease running until September, 1914. The new quarters are much larger, and it is believed will afford facilities for the growth of the work of the Society. The difference in the rent is only 25 a year and the amount of space is at least twice as great. A new set of books has been opened and other changes made in the routine work of the office, including the adoption of a card filing system for the membership accounts. The Committee has been in communication with Mr. Charles S. W. Packard in regard to his...
