The Seeds of Love.and War: Still Shaggin for a Shillin

By William E Johnson

Outskirts Press, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 234 x 156 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The Seeds of Love-and War: Still Shaggin for a Shillin recounts a taut tale spiked with plenty of sex appeal as it recounts the events that led up to the Boston Massacre. The year is 1769, and the Boston Gazette headline announces the latest in a series of murders-this time a young boy. Tension mounts as the Sons of Liberty, led by John Hancock and Samuel Adams, press for the exodus of the unwanted redcoats, and the Crown catches wind of the patriot s schemes for insurrection, thanks to the reports of a double-crossing candle-maker. The patriots story finds fertile soil to plant the seeds of rebellion in otherwise unknown turf . the dirty denizens of the Boston waterfront. Snug Harbor Tavern, a cozy brothel located on Fish Street near the Boston Harbor, provides a haven for the patriots. What happens at Snug Harbor stays at Snug Harbor. After all, it s not just any tavern. It happens to be a bordello owned by Amanda Griffith, a buxom barmaid set on having her way with Hancock,...
