Sanitation in India : A Historico-Sociological Survey

By Hetukar Jha

2015. PaperBack. Book Condition: New. 102 About The Book:- Sanitation is now increasingly recognized as one of the most 'publicly relevant issues' in our country. The book deals with why it is appropriate, rather, necessary for this issue to be duly considered as a field of historio sociological studies in the Indian academia. Further, the details of the habits and practices regarding sanitation which prevailed in different periods of our history have been discussed. Besides, an attempt has al so been made to examine the socio political and cultural conditions which forged and promoted the association of some communities with the tasks of sewage disposal, cleaning streets, etc. The assumption guiding the present endeavour, at least implicitly , is that the traditions and practices relating to sanitation belong to our cultural sphere and, therefore, deserve an important space on the agenda of studies and research in social sciences. About The Author:- Hetukar Jha (b.1944, Madhubani, Bihar) joined Patna University as a lecturer on sociology in 1968 and was professor and head of the Department of Sociology at the time of retirement (in 2004). In 1972, he was awarded Fulbright Scholarship. Since 1968, he has been working on villages, traditions, culture...
