

Claiming Ground

By Bell, Laura

Vintage Books, 2011. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: "Quietly powerful Bell's writing elegantly balances pain and love, solitude and family ties, finding solace both in human relationships and in relationships to animals and the Western landscape. Big and open-hearted like the Wyoming sky, this memoir is a pleasure to read." -Catherine Hollis, Sacramento Book Review "[Claiming Ground] can be savored for the lyricism of its language, its insight into a distinct American region, and as a meditation on physical work and the role it played in one woman's life." -Julie Foster, Minneapolis Star Tribune "Redolent of wide-open spaces and valley bottoms where beasts find water in reedy swamps sheltered by cottonwoods [Bell] writes so honestly and beautifully that I dared not skip a word for fear I'd miss another moment of grace or insight. This is a book to savor, and to read and reread." -Lois Atwood, The Providence Journal "Open, honest, strong and unflinching." -Leslie Doran, The Durango Herald "Part lyrical remembrance of a deeply intense relationship with nature in a sweepingly majestic landscape, part unswerving self-analysis, Claiming Ground delivers both beauty and unabashed reflection. But it is not only a looking back; it is a guidepost to the possibilities..."
